

The Purple One Social Narrative

- I have lots of different things to do and different places to go every day.
- When I go somewhere different, sometimes it can be tricky to figure out where my place is.
- I can use my purple square to help me out.
- When I need to move to a different place, I will have a purple square in my hand.
- There will be another purple square that looks the same in the place I need to go.
- I will walk to where the other purple square is.
- When I see the other purple square, I will put my one next to it.
- When I put the two squares together, it will show me I am in the right place.
- Then I can be proud of myself, because I have used my purple squares to show me where I need to go!

The bold sentences are the most important to read.
